TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

The transfer of copyright from author to publisher must be clearly stated in writing to enable the publisher to assure maximum dissemination of the author's work. Therefore, the following agreement, executed and signed by the author(s), is required with each article submission. If the article is a "work made for hire" it must be signed by the employer.

Article entitled:

Author(s):

is herewith submitted for publication in International Jordanian journal Aryam for humanities and social sciences (IJJA). The undersigned hereby declares and warrants that the article has not been published previously, is not under consideration for publication elsewhere except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture or an academic thesis and it does not contain any matter that is scandalous, obscene, libelous, or otherwise contrary to law.

When the article is accepted for publication in IJJA, the undersigned hereby agrees to assign to International Jordanian journal Aryam for humanities and social sciences (IJJA) the copyright in the article identified above and any supplemental tables, illustrations or other information submitted therewith (the "article") in all forms and media (whether now known or hereafter developed), throughout the world, in all languages, for the full term of copyright and all extensions and renewals thereof, effective when and if the article is accepted for publication. This transfer includes the right to adapt the presentation of the article for use in conjunction with computer systems and programs, including reproduction or publication in machine- readable form and incorporation in electronic retrieval systems.

The author(s) retain or are hereby granted (without the need to obtain further permission) rights to use the article for traditional scholarly communications, for teaching, and for distribution within their institution.

Please mark one or more of the below boxes (as appropriate) and then sign and date the document.

- I am the sole author of the article
- I am the corresponding author signing on behalf of all co-authors of the article
- The article is a "work made for hire" and I am signing as an authorized representative of the employing company/institution
